About Croatian

Croatian is spoken in countries that have been historically the ethnic Croatian homelands, and in many other countries where Croats live today, for example: Italy, Slovakia, Romania, Austria, Germany, Sweden, South and North America, New Zealand and Australia.

The Croatian culture and language have influenced other regional cultures and have contributed significantly to fields of knowledge such as science and technology, literature, music, the visual arts, religion and philosophy.

The study of Croatian gives access to this rich cultural and linguistic heritage.
