About Dari

Dari is the name for the Persian language in Afghanistan used mainly in official papers and daily spoken language.

Dari is the primary language of the Afghan people and is spoken in the northern and western parts including the capital Kabul in the east.

Approximately 60% of the population of Afghanistan are native speakers of Dari. Dari is written in a modified Arabic alphabet, and has many Arabic loanwords.

Dari serves as the means of communication between speakers of different languages in Afghanistan.

Many speakers of Dari from Afghanistan are also able to speak languages from neighbouring countries, such as Uzbekistan and Pakistan.
